Things ill got had ever bad success, And happy was it always for that son Whose father, for his boarding, went to hell.
—Shakespeare.

Hilo will now change its slogan to "Watch Hilo Clean Up," and no one doubts that it will make good.

Remember the passengers, how they will grow in numbers if provided for by the steamship lines carrying the freights.

Judge Robertson's comment on the On Tai case recalls the remark of the late Judge Estee that American law is common justice.

Everyone who banks on the future of Honolulu is playing in a financial game that has a backing as strong as the United States Government.

Most any President might well refuse to commit himself when the representatives of his party in Congress are so busy smashing the family crockery.

Sometimes the careless utterance of an official handled by vicious and foolish persons can do a community thousands of dollars' worth of damage, and not accomplish the slightest benefit.

Honolulu plays no favorites. It will accept four Honoluluans as a bonus for the two hundred and twenty-seven thousand-ton freight contract, as well as four Wilhel-minas. Passenger ships are what Honolulu must have with its freights.

This break in the party ranks of the House of Representatives means that the Territory of Hawaii will be wise to stick by the principle of protection at every point. The low tariff advocates are making such heavy inroads that they are threatening the very life of the Republican party.

Members of the Board of Supervisors who forget to attend an important meeting of the city legislature are men who have deliberately checked overboard any measure of public confidence they may have been carrying. Men who run away may live to fight another day, but not a winning battle in matters of government.

Someone has evidently told the Russian immigrants that this is an El Dorado where one-thousand-dollar nuggets can be picked off the board of immigration by simply refusing to do as you are told. When the Russian immigrants finally awake to the real state of affairs, it will be an appropriate time for that someone to seek protection from physical violence.

Somehow, President Taft doesn't seem to say anything that grips the heart of the people. Everyone supposes that the President of the United States decides what he shall do because he believes he is right, rather than upon any considerations of personal popularity or party favor. Consequently, the President hasn't told the people anything they have not always depended on as a foregone conclusion.

Uncle Joe's only hope appears to be a combination between the Regular Republicans and the Irregular Democrats. Should this be the final result, it will merely mean a more serious division of the radical and conservative elements in the two regular parties and their eventual combination possibly under a new party name. The lines of old party allegiance are smashing up, and Uncle Joe may be the first great sacrifice on the altar of the new idea.

"When it comes to considering the favorable features, the balance appears to be largely on the side of the latter. The political skies are brightening, and unreasoning hostility to corporations is slowly abating. Business conditions are generally satisfactory, although there is some slight cessation of activity in certain lines, as is usual at this period of the year before the spring trade sets in."—Henry Clews.

Wall Street always cheers up when satisfied that Congress will do nothing more serious than fight over proposed legislation.

Brutus when he assassinated Caesar promised the Roman people a better than Caesar.
These former friends of the Speaker in the assassination of that gentleman do not make a promise of anything but someone weaker than the Speaker.
I have some pride in the in-tellectuality of this body and in the courage of it, and if this House must have a Republican as Speaker then I as a member and a Democrat prefer to see Mr. Cannon in the chair. I myself had rather see a giant than a weakling. I would rather see a lion than a fox.
—Congressman Kitchin.

This is from the speech of a North Carolina Democrat, and it may be an early expression from the anchor-to-windward for which Uncle Joe and the Regulars have provided!!
The fight of the Insurgents becomes too serious.

PROMINENCE OF EDUCATION IN AMERICAN LIFE

The American people have ever looked upon education as something very necessary to their prosperity and welfare.

The English colonists brought with them the idea that education and religion are two inseparable factors. They left the Motherland at a time when grammar schools and Latin schools were being rapidly multiplied, so that increasing numbers of youth were given the advantage of that training which led to the university. Under the influence of this movement of higher education, and feeling the necessity of educating ministers in order that the religious welfare of the colonies might be guarded, our fathers at once proceeded to establish similar schools. The Dutch settlers of New York also entertained high views, and we find them making early and definite efforts to provide proper instruction for their children.

As new States were formed, they promptly took up the work of supporting and controlling the schools.
When by the union of the States the nation came into bearing, the policy of State control was not seriously questioned. The national government, being founded and guided by statesmen who regarded education as of supreme importance, has always maintained a paternal attitude.
Grants of money and land, and numerous other provisions of the national congress, have aided the States and have favored the rapid growth of educational agencies. The acquisition of our vast national domain and the onward march of the conquering forces of civilization have been attended by a rapid and wonderful development of educational plant and equipment. There has been also a remarkable growth of new and pressing demands on behalf of industry, politics, science, art, domestic improvement, health, and human culture in its various forms. The promptitude and efficiency with which these various and extended demands have been met have excited the admiration of other nations. As we attempt to indicate the larger phases of this progress and show how great are the material, social and political interests involved, no one will question that the administration of schools is a subject worthy a place in the university curriculum and deserving the attention of practical men and women who are called to serve the public in the educational field, either in a legislative or executive capacity.

CONFERENCE HELD
AT THE CAPITOL
been asked concerning a story appearing in a morning paper to the effect that the Wilhelmina would be quar-antined at San Francisco should the steamer call at Hilo.
"The present determination is to permit the Wilhelmina to proceed to Hilo, there to discharge and take on general cargo," stated Dr. Ramus. "It is expressly stipulated by the United States quarantine service that the Wilhelmina must remain away from the wharves while there, discharging and taking on her freight by the aid of ship's boats. In order to secure a clean bill of health, the Wilhelmina will not be permitted to embark second class or steerage passengers at the Hawaii port though no restriction will be placed upon the embarkation of cabin passengers, of which I understand a number have been booked through the local agents.

"Those cabin passengers who proceed to Hilo by the Wilhelmina will be allowed to go ashore while the steamer remains at the port pending the handling of her freight. They will, however, be required to present themselves before Dr. Grace, the Federal Quarantine representative at Hilo, prior to the sailing of the Wilhelmina for Honolulu, as that medical officer has been instructed to make a medical examination of the passengers and crew.

"Following a careful compliance with these requirements I see no reason why we should not give Captain Johnson a letter to the Federal quarantine authorities at San Francisco, setting forth what has been done. It will to all intents and purposes serve as a clean bill of health.

Mr. John Dwyer, in charge of the shipping department of Castle and Cooke, the local agents for the steamer Wilhelmina, stated this morning that it was the present intention to dispatch the Wilhelmina to Hilo, questioning the authority of the local board of health to cause a quarantine to be placed upon the Wilhelmina upon her arrival at San Francisco.

"The Wilhelmina has freight and passengers for the Big Island and why shouldn't she go there. We expect the vessel to start for Hilo on Sunday evening," insisted Mr. Dwyer.

CITY COMFORTS INCREASING.

Larger Parks and More Playgrounds
For the Growing Population—Many Acres in Parks.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 8.—
It is shown in the U. S. Census Bureau's special annual report for 1907, now in press, relative to the statistics of the 158 largest cities each having over 30,000 population in 1907, that from 1905 to 1907, the number of bathing beaches reported increased from 44 to 53; swimming pools, from 56 to 61; and all the year baths, from 15 to 78. The total bathing attendance increased from 19,158,562 in 1905 to 29,204, 838 in 1907, an increase of 52.4 per cent. More than half of this attendance was reported from New York City, those ranking next in order being Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago and Milwaukee.

New York has the largest acreage (278.5) devoted to zoological parks, followed in order by Washington (166.5) and Atlanta (149). In the number of mammals and birds that such parks contain, New York ranks first, and Cincinnati second; while Washington ranks third in number of mammals and Philadelphia third in number of birds.

Playgrounds are maintained in 76 of the 158 cities included in the report, and the city appropriations for playgrounds increased from $516, 277 in 1906 to $741,912 in 1907.
More than one-third of the amount was appropriated by New York, the cities next in order being Milwaukee, Washington and Pittsburgh. Private contributions for play grounds was greatest in Washington. The total acreage devoted to play grounds was greatest in Indianapolis, followed by New York, Boston and Baltimore. In New York most of the area devoted to play grounds was connected with public schools, while in the other cities named, most of the playground area was in city parks.

INTEREST PAID BY
MAINLAND CITIES

The National Capital Has Low Per Cent, on Account of Large Loan System in Vogue.

The rate of interest paid by cities on their interest-bearing debt at the close of the fiscal year 1907, depended largely upon geographic location, the cities in the west and south paying the average a higher rate of interest than those in the north-eastern section of the country, according to the U. S. Census Bureau's forthcoming report on the statistics of the 158 cities in the United States which had a population of over 30, 000 each at the time mentioned.

The highest average in cities of over 300,000 population, 4.1 per cent in Chicago, Cleveland, Milwaukee and New Orleans; in cities of from 100,000 to 300,000 population, 5.4 per cent in Denver; in cities of
from 50,000 to 100,000 population, 5.5 per cent in Tacoma, Wash.; in cities of from 30,000 to 50,000 population, 5.6 per cent in Birmingham, Ala.

The corresponding lowest rates were 3.2 per cent in Washington, 3.6 per cent in Providence, 3.6 per cent in Hartford, and 3.6 per cent in Binghamton and Elmira, New York. The unusually low rate in Washington was due to a large amount of temporary loans bearing only 2 per cent interest. The interest rate on the funded debt of that city was 3.6 per cent. Of the cities of over 300,000 population, Philadelphia paid the lowest average rate on its funded debt, 3.4 per cent.

Berlin, Feb. 11.—Dr. Emmanuel Lasker, of New York, retains the title of chess champion of the world. His series of ten games with Carl Schlech-ter, of Vienna, who challenged him for the title, resulted in equal scores each winning one game and eight games were drawn. The final game proved most exciting. It lasted three days and seventy-one moves were made. If drawn Schlechter would have been the champion.

MOTOR SPEEDWAY, INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 18.—Lewis Strang, in a 120-a new world's record.

The former record was held by Old-

NASAL CATARRH PRODUCES DEAFNESS RELIEF IN PERUNA.

Mr. R. J. Arless, 401 City Hall Ave., Montreal, Quebec, is an old gentleman of wide acquaintance, having served thirty-eight years in the General Postoffice of Montreal, a record which speaks for itself. Concerning his use of Peruna, see letter given below.

"I have been afflicted with nasal catarrh to such a degree that it affected my hearing.
"This was contracted some twenty years ago by being exposed to draughts and sudden changes of temperature.
"I have been under the treatment of specialists and have used many drugs recommended as specifics for catarrh in the head and throat—all to no purpose.
"About three years ago I was induced by a confrere in office to try Peruna.
"After some hesitation, as I had doubts as to results after so many failures, I gave Peruna a trial, and am happy to state that after using eight or ten bottles of Peruna I am much improved in hearing, and in breathing through the nostrils."

At a meeting of the stockholders of advantage. An offer to buy the plant was received recently and refused, according to a statement made by one of the officers of the fruit company.

It is understood that a semi-proposal
